

FIRST ASSIGNMENTS

Assignment #1: US Citizenship Test - DUE WEDNESDAY AUGUST 6th

Can you pass the test to become a citizen of the United States? Here are the tests one must pass:

Speaking Test

Your ability to speak English will be determined by a USCIS Officer during your eligibility interview on Form N-400, Application for Naturalization.

Reading Test

You must read aloud one out of three sentences correctly to demonstrate an ability to read in English. The Reading Test Vocabulary List will help you study for the English reading portion of the naturalization test. The content focuses on civics and history topics.

Writing Test

You must write one out of three sentences correctly to demonstrate an ability to write in English. The Writing Test Vocabulary List will help you study for the English writing portion of the naturalization test. The content focuses on civics and history topics.

Civics Test

There are 100 civics questions on the naturalization test. During your naturalization interview, you will be asked up to 10 questions from the list of 100 questions. You must answer correctly six (6) of the 10 questions to pass the civics test.

You have two opportunities to take the English and civics tests per application. If you fail any portion of the test during your first interview, you will be retested on the portion of the test that you failed between 60 and 90 days from the date of your initial interview.

Your assignment is to take an online citizenship test here: http://www.800citizen.org/us_citizenship_test/citizenship_practice_test/

You will be prompted to choose your state (Arizona) and the number of questions (50).

To earn credit for this assignment you must print your results page. If you were taking the test to become a citizen, you would need a 60%.
