

Outcomes

Income

Programs

Practices (source: Punahou's website)

Support

Infrastructure

Goals

build more partnerships federal workforce training programs

Innovation: the ability to find new approaches to problems filming students explaining projects equipment and supplies more students attending college position for federal, state, private grants

Vision: the ability to set goals and design plans of action organizing permanent sustainability fair measure ROI of programs more students receiving scholarships cash donations paypal button provide tax info for donations

Resourcefulness: the ability to secure resources needed to address an issue or problem enewsletters, website, social media, youtube high-paying green jobs for students purchases of sustainability products aquaponics, sq. foot gardens, worm farms

Perspective: the ability to see issues or problems from multiple perspectives organize volunteer team making sustainability programs sustainable waste food, green waste, reusable items have school use soap made from glycerin

Social Responsibility: the value of contributing to the community support for CTE teachers concurrent associate degree with high school degree