

English 11 – pages 29-30

English 10 - Loose Paper – 10/19-10/20 – Rights and Revolution

Revolution means a dramatic change in ideas or practice. Sometimes, revolution can involve the overthrow of a government or ruler. Other times, it can simply mean a time during which rules, laws, ideas, or actions change among a large group of people.

Rights are the freedoms to do things without fear of punishment or abuse.

1. What right was violated in the case of Phoebe Prince?
2. Do you agree that this case was a violation of this teenager's rights?
3. Do you know of any other instances of discrimination towards teenagers?
4. What right was Constance McMillen trying to protect?
5. Do you agree or disagree that this should be a teen right?
6. What do the words "life, liberty and...happiness" usually represent?
7. Are there any other human rights?
8. Do these rights apply only to adults?
9. What are teen rights?
10. Create 2 lists, one of what teens can do, one of what they can't.