

Name _____ Period _____ Date _____

Misplaced Modifiers

Directions: UNDERLINE the misplaced modifier in each sentence, and then REWRITE it to make it correct. Remember, sometimes you have to add word/s when revising the sentence.

1. A woman passed by, leading a cocker spaniel in a long black dress.
2. After trying the combination several times, the lock finally opened.
3. He went to the library wearing a leather jacket.
4. Dipped in yogurt, many people love fresh strawberries.
5. Eating too much, my stomach was upset.
6. Hopping briskly through the garden, I saw a toad.
7. Celebrating my victory, a dinner with my friends lasted until midnight.
8. My cousin went on and on, describing the details of her wedding in the elevator.
9. Blaring from the stereo, I didn't recognize the strange music.
10. The guest speaker had dedicated his new book to his dog who was an archaeologist.
11. I bought the red coat from the shop owner with the enormous hood.
12. Oswaldo and Hilda found the flowers hiking up the mountain.
13. Don't try to pat the dog on the porch that is growling.
14. My mother found a package outside our house tied with ribbons.
15. Covered in cream cheese, my friends will love these bagels.