

Pygmalion Study Guide

Note: All of the questions on these finals have to do with the play itself, unless otherwise specified.

Essay: You will use your graphic organizer charts for your essay. Here is the prompt...

- Write a 5-paragraph essay comparing the two main male characters (Higgins & Pickering) in Pygmalion. Devote one body paragraph to each character and then the 3rd body paragraph needs to discuss the two men together (similarities and/or differences).

Comprehension: There are 23 multiple choice questions. Here are some samples without the multiple choices:

- The flower girl thought that the man taking notes of what she said was a:
- The gentleman who turns out to be Colonel Pickering is a student of:
- Henry Higgins had written a book titled:
- The reason that Eliza objected to a bath was that:
- What did Eliza's father do for a living?
- The one person who realized that Eliza was a "live doll" to Higgins and Pickering was who?
- A problem that Mrs. Higgins foresaw was:
- The person at the reception who said Eliza was a Hungarian princess was who?
- When Eliza left Higgins' house, she went to:
- Alfred Doolittle's fortune came from who?
- The person Doolittle blamed for delivering him into the hands of middle-class morality was who?
- What was Clara Eynsford Hill's fate?

Elements of Drama: This is a combination of multiple choice and T/F. Study the notes I gave you in class.