Indirect Object Pronoun

I have a new neighbor. He lives next door to me. He seems (to me) very nice. I want to give him something that he likes. I can make a cake for him or I can write him a note that says (to him), "Welcome to the neighborhood!" I can see him now. These binoculars are great! I can see it all now. I think that I'm going to watch him for a while. No one sees me when I use my binoculars because I turn out all the lights. I love these binoculars. I don't know what I ought to do. I'm going to ask my aunt what she thinks. She always gives me good advice.
