

AP European History: Summer 2014 Assignment

Ms. Callejas

1. READ: *Chapter 9: The Late Middle Ages- Social and Political Breakdown. Homework will be assigned the first day of class. Reading the chapter a few days before class begins will facilitate the workload.
2. COMPLETE: Map Activity. The two map worksheets are due the first week of class (TBA). Two Map quizzes will be scheduled on the first week of class. The first quiz will be a capitals of Europe quiz (out of the 35 I will choose 15), and the second will be a "Name the Country" Quiz (out of the 49, I will choose 25 for you to identify).

European Geography Objective: Students will recognize and identify the location of various European countries, capitals and geographic features.

Helpful website: Develop a mental map of Europe, its countries, capitals, and geography through these amazing memory games! http://sheppardsoftware.com/European_Geography.htm

The political map you will be working on is a reflection of the modern day European continent. Please keep in mind that due to wars, the borders will shift throughout time. Remember that borders are a social construction and are a result of historical outcomes. In this course, we will study the history of various countries located within the European continent.

Continent: any of the great divisions of land on the globe.

Country: a nation or its territory.

DUE: First week of class TBA. Capitals worksheet will be due the day of capitals quiz, Name the country worksheet will be due the day of the identification quiz.

Map Quiz: Be prepared to take the Name the Country and European capitals quiz the first week of school.
