

Minimum Competency Testing

Minimum competency testing shall be an integral part of the district testing program. It should include a means for assessing and remediating student deficiencies in the areas of reading, writing, computation, and the understanding of democratic governance and the free enterprise system.

Adopted: November 12, 1985

LEGAL REFS.: W.S. 21-2-304(a)(i)(C)