

DIAGNOSTIC AND SUPPORT SERVICES

School Psychologist

Responsibilities include psychological evaluation of children suspected of or having a learning or emotional disability; consultation with parents, teachers, and administrators.

Teacher Consultant

Responsibilities include individual and small group remediation; consultation with parents, teachers, and administrators; evaluation of students suspected of or having learning disabilities.

School Social Worker

Responsibilities include individual and/or group counseling/therapy; consultation with parents, teachers, and administrators; evaluation of students suspected of or having an emotional disability.

Speech - Language Pathologist

Responsibilities include individual or group speech and language therapy; consultation with parents, teachers, and administrators; evaluation of students suspected of or having a speech and/or language disabilities.

Occupational Therapist

Responsibilities include evaluation of students suspected of or having a perceptual and/or fine motor disability; consultation with parents, teachers, and administrators; individual remediation/therapy.

Physical Therapist

Responsibilities include evaluation of students suspected of or having a large motor disability; consultation with parents, teachers, and administrators; individual remediation/therapy.