

Grade 7

9.1, 9.32, 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 Monroe-Jackson Years Study Guide

The following objectives are mastered when the direction given is answered using all the listed terms.

Objective 1: Describe how Monroe's foreign policy decisions helped give shape to "the American household."

Rush-Bagot Agreement
Convention of 1818
Adams-Onis Treaty
Monroe Doctrine

Objective 2: Explain in detail the four parts of the Monroe Doctrine.

Colonial Independence from Europe
Americas & the Western Hemisphere
Europe & the Eastern Hemisphere

Object 3: Describe the emerging "rooms" in "the American Household."

Efforts to build Nationalism
American System
Cumberland Road
Erie Canal

"Foundational Crack" that divides the regions

North
South
West
Slavery
Missouri Compromise

Objective 4: Explain why Andrew Jackson marked a shift in American politics & why many Americans supported his presidency

Non-Aristocrat
Democrat
Factory workers
Southern farmers with small farms
Spoils system
Kitchen Cabinet

Objective 5: Describe how Andrew Jackson dealt with the "rooms of the house" or sectionalism in the U.S.

Tariffs – response North, South, West
States' Rights & Nullification Crisis
National Bank

Objective 6: Summarize the conflict between western settlers & American Indians during the Jackson presidency.

Westward expansion

Indian Removal Act

Indian Territory

Trail of Tears