Face the Music

Life can get out of tune, but sometimes we can hit the right note. In high school, we experience our own ups and downs. We can all remember who our friends were, who we had crushes on, what teacher taught us more than what could ever be found in books.
These four years are just as much a part of our lives as lyrics are to any great song.

*"Sometimes, I feel
the fear of uncertainty stinging cle
And I can't help but ask myself how much I let the fear take the wheel and steer. It's driven me before, and it seems to have vague,
haunting mass
appeal. But lately am beginning to find that I should be the one behind the wheel."*

Roman Times

Sporting their togas, juniors Rithu Chillal, Alison Frihart, and Afrita Davis show their devotion to National Honor Society by dressing up for informal initiation.

Go NADO

Showing off their buff bods, juniors Brandon Tracy, Adam Bowles, John DeVore, and Ric Brown show off their school spirit at a home football game.

Quiet Please!

Doing heavy reading, senior Rebecca Bumgarner researches Celtic Myths and Legends for Mrs. Staudt's Senior English project.

"Cool Club"

Posing for the camera, sophomores Abby Wilson and Chelsea Noel try to start their own club during club pictures day.

You think everyday is an

Ordinary Day

but is it? How many times in your life will you be able to say you crammed all night for a hard English test, ate a cheap lunch with your best friends, and participated in a sport after school--all in the same day? High school might seem tough now, but later on, we are going to cherish the memories of our "Ordinary Days." We might take it for granted how little things like our friends, family, teachers and jobs can make our "Ordinary Day" something extra-ordinary.

*"Just a day, just an ordinary day. Just trying to get by. Just a boy, just an ordinary boy, but he was looking to the sky.
And as he asked if I would come along, I started to realize.
That everyday he finds just what he's looking for, and like a shooting star, he shines..."*

Serving the papers

Handing over some important papers, sophomore Crystal Steen does her job.

Save me!

Stepping in front of junior Matt Williams, senior Kara Thiele makes sure that he is ok. "I like Mr. White as a director," Thiele said.

Come close to me

Making sure everyone realizes his skills, junior Ben Chappell gives us a taste of his acting ability. "I like acting. It gives me something to do after school," Chappell said.

Sing it for me once more
Concentrating on the music, senior Amanda Martin sings for everyone. "I love to sing, it really expresses so many feelings," Martin said.

This is serious

Giving us a very serious look, sophomore Logan Loffer makes young girls swoon. "The best part of the musical was the experience and being able to act like someone else," Loffer said.

Step 1, step 2, step 3...

Doing some choreographed moves, junior Haylie Walter acts like a star. "It really isn't hard to dance and sing, if you just practice you will be ok," Walter said.

It's time to say goodbye

Saying his goodbyes, junior Matt Williams leaves the girl behind. "I like the plays that Mr. White does. They are really fun and interesting," Williams said.

Star Search

Touring the school for a day, members of Field Kindley participate in spirit week by dressing like their favorite rock star.

Look Real Pretty

During the afternoon assembly, candidates smile as their names are called. "I was so nervous up there in front of everyone," senior Nichole Christmore said. "It was hard to keep that smile on my face. It kind of hurt!"

Handsome Hunks

Waiting for the afternoon assembly, candidates, seniors Bobby Tracy and Matt Bowman, walk around the gymnasium. "Being nominated for homecoming is an honor," Tracy said.

Bring It On

Exciting the crowd, JV cheerleaders cheer before the game. "I don't like cheering because I can't spend time with my friends," freshman Kristal Gritmaker said.

Crowning Glory

Smiling with joy, seniors Lindsey Campbell and Earl Jones accept their crowns after winning homecoming. This year there were 20 candidates. "I was very surprised and excited to win homecoming," Campbell said.

All Eyes on Me

Being put on display, the homecoming candidates nervously sit during the afternoon assembly. Many adults and students were not pleased that there was only one homecoming again this year instead of two.

Say Cheese

Getting close, seniors Earl Jones and Carmen Azuara pose for a picture. "I liked the fact that I got to walk with my good buddy Earl," Azuara said.

Joshing Around

Clowning around, seniors Teresa Lo and Josh Shald smile. "I was glad Teresa and I got to do our booty-shakin'-losers-dance out on the field," Shald said.

Sonic Chick

Hanging out at Sonic, junior Jennie Unruh gets food after doing Meals on Wheels. "After Meals on Wheels, me and Gretchen go to Sonic and chill," Unruh said.

Chinese Anyone?

Waiting tables at China Garden, freshman Chelsey Baker takes the order. "I enjoy working there, it is fun and I get to meet new people," Baker said.

Friends til the End

Warming the camera with their smiles, seniors Mitsuyo Muto and Ashley Hall cheese for the camera.

12 Ball in the Corner Pocket

Shooting pool with his friends, freshman Kyler Brown finishes the game. "I have been playing since I was tiny, the best part is winning money," Brown said.

Brain Teaser

Studying for Seminar in Biology, senior Mitsuyo Muto goes through her notes before a test. "I think being a foreign exchange student has been a good experience, the school system has been a big change," Muto said. photo by Teresa Lo

In His Hands

Molding his clay with great care and passion, junior Tyler Wyant shows off his talent. "I enjoy making stuff, it really relaxes me," Wyant said.

Price Check!

Doing his routine aisle check, senior Carlos Chavez works at Elmores. "The only benefit of working is getting paid," Chavez said.

Kung-Fu Fighting!

Giving us a show, senior Stephen Hardiman and junior Rithu Chillal perform a quick karate match. "Karate is a great sport for any woman to defend herself," Chillal said.

You go to school five days a week to learn and prepare for a life after high school. It's an opportunity for success, and without academics, school has no point. F.K.H.S. has all the basics, plus a wide variety of electives, ranging from Video Production to Vo-Tech classes. High school is a lot of fun and is a place where many memories are made. You've got to remember the real reason for school, and to always make something of yourself.

Make Yourself

"If I hadn't made me, I would've been made somehow. I won't let 'em make me, it's more than I can allow. If you really want to live, why not try and Make Yourself?"

Concentration

Trying his best to concentrate, junior Chris Eck gets his assignment done. "Mr. Murdock's class is a lot of fun," Eck said.

Extra Help

Trying to understand her Pre-Calc, junior Mindy White gets help from Mrs. Kastler. "Math is fun," White said.

Helpin' a Friend

Explaining the classwork, junior Jeff Stevenson helps out junior John DeVore. "Working together is great fun in math," Stevenson said.

Visual Learning

Learning about the start of life, Mr. Staudt's Biology class "experiments" with his visual aids.

Measuring chemicals and dissecting animals, what a good way to learn!

Science

Understanding Science

Instructing the class in a lesson about dot diagrams, Mr. Bobek, a widely known chemistry teacher, shows the students how to count out the electrons in an element.

What a "cat"astrophe

Peeling off the skin of the cat, senior Dustin Cantrell notices that dissecting isn't all it's cut out to be. "Seminar in Biology is a great class that I enjoy and Mr. Staudt makes it awesome," Cantrell said.

Nice Glasses

Seeing if the elements react with each other, sophomore Trista Espe and junior Whitney Davis decide if the light is on. "Chemistry is sometimes fun. I like the labs but I hate wearing the safety goggles," Espe said.

Helping out

Teaching the class, Mr. Staudt helps the class to figure their own grades. "I love to teach the kids anything I possibly can. I have a blast teaching biology," Staudt said.

Concentrating

Measuring the solutions, sophomore Riva Jeter finds the electronegativity. "Chemistry is alright I guess, I have a better time when it is hands-on like labs," Jeter said.

Snoozing

Taking a break from all of the learning and assignments, Mr. Staudt's biology class puts their heads down for a little nap.

This sure is fun

Making it an exciting assignment, Mr. Sizemore aids sophomore Kyle Shook with his essay about acids and bases.

Cuttin' in class

Having a great time poking and prodding the cat, seniors Lindsay Campbell and Stacy Baldwin dissect a feline in Seminar in Biology.

Learning about everything from who they are, to where they came from, to where they are going.

Social Science

Hard at Work

Concentrating on her assignment, junior Megan Hatridge works diligently to finish her assignment. "It's pretty fun," Hatridge said.

Getting Help

Talking with his psychology teacher, Mr. Gaines, senior Sam Wilson gets help during class time.

Study, Study, Study

Looking in her Economics book, sophomore Trista Espe studies before class starts. Economics is taught by Mr. Law.

Movie Madness!

Watching intently, senior Stephen Hardimon and junior Ben Chappell view the movie "John Q."

Writing it down

Writing down some notes for the class, junior Arjun Reddy prepares for his American History test.

Looking in the book

Studying before class begins, freshmen Tiffany Cooke and Tori Loomis look in their World History books. World History is taught by Mr. Gaines.

Time to Reflect

Writing in her journal, junior Jessica Taylor reflects on the class. "Writing in journals will help us remember what we learned for a longer time and we will always have a journal to go back to," Taylor said.

New teacher in town

Writing down the basics, psychology/sociology teacher Danny Gaines prepares for a new student in one of his classes. This was Mr. Gaines' first year teaching at FKHS.

Getting more in touch with our language, one book at a time

English

Look at me!

Smiling for the camera, senior Abby Brown presents her poster for Mrs. Staudt's senior English class. "My poster took a lot of effort and I really loved the colors on it!" Brown said.

Pay Attention!

Concentrating hard, Mrs. Bobek's freshman English class watches an interesting movie. "I really enjoy English, it is one of my best subjects," freshman Shanna Ward said.

Crazy Ladies

Explaining their papers in Mr. Harbaugh's sophomore English class, sophomores Andrea Ferguson and Randilyn Nash talk to the class about their essay topic.

Smile

Displaying his love for wrestling, senior Earl Jones shows his flag he made in Mrs. Staudt's class. "My project is very interesting, it's a wrestling mat," Jones said.

Show 'em your Stuff

Writing away, sophomore Caleb Logan explains his paper to the class. "I wasn't quite sure at the time what my paper was about, so I made something up," Logan said.

Strike a Pose!

Goofing off, Mrs. Staudt's senior English class poses with their senior projects. "I was really impressed with all the great ideas my students came up with," Mrs. Staudt said.

Let me Help

Working away, juniors Allison Chapman and Chelsey Kriebel help each other out during English class. "My good friend Chelsey here was explaining to me where I should be putting my commas," Chapman said.

What a Performance!

Speaking with great enthusiasm, junior Dustin Jones reads his play aloud in Mrs. Richard's junior English class. "I had lots of fun reading plays in English," Jones said.

An Academic class that hones your Problem Solving skills...

Math

Educational Time

Letting everything sink in, junior Adam Bowles stretches as he contemplates finishing another Algebra problem.

The Lesson of the Day

Learning about what they need to know, these students listen while their teacher goes over the assignment for the day.

Team Work

Working together on their pre-calc, juniors Zack Scott, Thomas Kennedy and Mark Bowman decide that working as a group is a lot easier than working alone.

Help Please

Going to get help from the teacher, freshman Zach Maritt shows that he is interested in learning. "Math is not one of my favorite subjects but, I learn to live with it," Maritt said.

Yes Boss.....

Telling people how things are done, junior Jeff Stevenson helps his fellow classmates on their pre-calc. "Pre-calc is easy because the answers are in the back of the book," Stevenson said.

Lets Learn

Doing what he does best, Mr. Hart goes over the lesson of the day with his class.

Attention Class!!!!

Getting ready to start the lesson of the day, Mrs. Witwer prepares to explain the day's lesson. After 14 years, Mrs. Witwer still helps students here at Field Kindley High School.

Hard at Work

Working steady on their pre-calc, juniors Alison Frihart, Rithu Chillal, Afrita Stewart, and Gretchen Trisler all work together.

*Preparing FKHS students with technology skills

Business

Times Up!!!!

Typing away, freshman Scottie McVey hurries to finish her homework before the bell rings. "I really like Mrs. Martin's class because she makes it fun," McVey said.

Say Cheese!!!

Editing a video, senior Richard Parker splices together clips for a finished product. "It's all about the money and making movies. Zjeah!!!!!" Parker said.

Just Relax!

Chillin', junior Aaron Irving waits for the bell to ring. "I usually finish my work quick, so I'm always waiting," Irving said.

Dazed and Confused?!?!?

Looking lost, sophomore Jaryd McCullough stares blankly at the computer screen.

Now What?

Concentrating hard, junior Brandon Tracy and sophomore Cory Hensley try to correct their assignments.

Passing the Time

Pausing to help, sophomore Kathryn Lynn works with senior Sam Wilson during graphic communications. "I had fun in Mr. Murdock's class because everyone is silly as dell... computers," Lynn said.

Lending a Helping Hand!

Helping out, Mr. Murdock takes a break to help junior Brock Blumenstine with his current project. "I like Mr. Murdock's class because, I'm a real business man," Blumenstine said.

Hard at Work

Typing fast, sophomores Melissa White and Michael O'Connor finish up documents in Mrs. Payne's computer applications class.

The students of FKHS study hard in Honors and it all pays off in prizes and fun during rallies.

Honors A.P./Renaissance

Ace Those Tests!

Testing away on the State Assessments, junior Alison Frihart does her best on the test. "I like honors english, because Mrs. Bobek tells us a lot of stories about Mr. Bobek's college days," Frihart said.

Hard At Thought!

Concentrating on his work, junior Danny Funk stays focused. "The class is tough but I realize it will pay off in the end," Funk said.

Take Your Time!

Marking all his answers and hoping they are right, junior Ryan Schlottfelt takes the Assessments during March of 2003.

Smile Big!

Kicking back, sophomore Chris Nowrouzi enjoys his new chair he won at the Renaissance Rally this winter. "I had fun loungin' in my new recliner I won at Renaissance," Nowrouzi said.

Money, Money, Money!

Fighting for some moolah, Josh Shald and other Gold Plus students at FKHS try to get the last couple of dollars left in the balloons at the rally.

Where'd They Go!!!

Waiting impatiently for the balloons to drop, the students with a 4.0 GPA wonder why they are stuck. "I enjoyed the balloon drop, but I had to wait for the balloons to hit the ground because I was so short," senior Bobbi Herring said.

Chatting Away

Waiting in line, senior Earl Jones chats with Mrs. Walker about the awesome things he received in his bag of goodies.

Cash Fight!

Diving in, the Gold Plus students have a vicious fight for the money that is in the balloons.

Family and Consumer Science classes help students learn the skills they need after high school to survive in the real world

Family and Consumer Sciences

Cooking Up A Storm

Making sure her food is done, freshman Megan Ramson double checks. "My favorite part of Foods class is cooking," Ramson said. photo by Sarah Brown

The Finishing Touch

Finishing up, freshman Stefan Danielson spreads meat on his pizza. "Foods class is awesome," Danielson said. photo by Bobbi Her-ring

Chowin' Down

Flippin' Away

Taking her time, junior Rachel Morgan prepares to flip a pancake. "Foods class was very interesting because I learned a lot of cooking techniques," Morgansaid.

Cleaning Up

Doing the dirty work, junior Josh Yeubanks washes the dishes. "The best thing about Foods class is eating the food," Yeubanks said.

Showing Skills

Showing off her cooking skills, senior Lacey Edwards smiles for a shot. "All the yummy food we eat is the best thing!" Edwards said.

Umm Umm Good

Getting ready to chow down, sophomore Katie Clough holds back her hunger for a quick picture. "This French toast is really good," Clough said.

Tough Job

Teaching Adult Living for the first time, Ms. Partridge learns with the students as well. "I now realize that there are things kids need everyday," Partridge said.

Newspaper, Yearbook, Broadcasting, Photography and Journalism classes broaden the mind and bring out the news.

Journalism

Fall Conference

Enjoying the KU campus, junior Krystan Caldwell and seniors Michelle Harrell and Teresa Lo attend the KSPA Fall Conference. They were chosen because they were head editors of yearbook, broadcasting and newspaper, respectively. photo by Teresa Lo

Snack Time

Snacking on a cookie, adviser Beth Conrad waits for her newspaper staff to finish page layouts. photo by Bobbi Herring

Yearbook Staff Delivers

Delivering yearbook papers, senior Bobbi Herring does her yearbook editor-in-chief job. "This year there was a lot of work to do," Herring said. "But I enjoyed helping people." photo by Teresa Lo

Reporter-in-training

Having a good time in Photography class, sophomore Jessica Vannoster learns much about the field of reporting.

Gorilla Lovin'

Monkeying around, seniors Teresa Lo and Megan Shook and junior Mark Bowman pose by the PSU mascot at the regional contest. "I was disappointed that I didn't place at regionals," Bowman said. "But I was glad Tree got honorable mention." The broadcasting team placed second, and Julie Jones placed in headline writing.

TV Stars

Editors Together

Taking a break from laying out the newspaper pages, editors senior Teresa Lo, junior Arjun Reddy, senior Megan Shook and juniors Mark Bowman and John DeVore relax. "The other editors are great," DeVore said. "Newspaper this year was a lot of fun."

Debate and Forensics students work hard, have fun, and bring home the wins.

Debate/Forensics

Time for a Break

Posing for a picture, juniors Erin Walterscheid, Chelsey Kriebel, Julie Jones, and senior Jenny White hang out at the State Debate tournament.

You did it!

Congratulating freshman Nicole Schneider on her first place win in a consolation house, Debate coach Darrel Harbaugh shakes her hand.

Having fun

Accepting her award for Student Congress, junior Chelsey Kriebel gets her certificate. "NFL Congress was awesome. I never thought it would be this much fun," Kriebel said.

We Won!

Posing for a picture, senior Josh Shald and juniors Julie Jones and Chelsey Kriebel show off their awards. "Debate lets you express off your intelligent side and Forensics lets you express your acting side," Jones said.

All the way to State

Hanging out together at the State Debate tournament, seniors Kara Thiele and Chris DeLaCruz pose for a picture.

And the Winners are...

Qualifying for Nationals in Student Congress, senior Josh Shald stands with the other national qualifiers from Derby and Parsons.

The NFL Bunch

Celebrating their victory at Regional Debate, a group of students stand with coaches Harbaugh and Krane, showing off their plaque.

Hard work paying off

Handing out awards to his students, Debate/Forensics coach Darrel Harbaugh congratulates sophomore Keith Wilson on his win in Student Congress.

Throughout the year these teens bake cookies for the student body, create works of art and of course LEARN!

Competing in sports means

Going The Distance

or going home. Sports is a time to spend with a group of people your age. A time to set goals, while spending the season trying to meet them and a time to realize it takes teamwork to win. It's not always about winning, but why want to lose? Win or lose, it's how you play the game. So try your best to go your distance.

*"Churning and burning, they yearn for the cup. The sun has gone down and the moon has

Going Up

Performing an Elevator, freshman Stephanie Irwin tries to keep her balance as she cheers for the team with the help of junior Erin Walterscheid and sophomore Katie Clough.

Smile for the Camera

Trying to receive their fifteen minutes of fame, members of the Varsity cheer team gather together for a local television station.

Model Material

Working the camera, junior Erin Walterscheid models the new cheer uniforms raised through extensive fundraising. "We worked our butts off to get our new uniforms!" Walterscheid said.

Number One!

Trying her best to pump up the student section, freshmen Jessica Briggs keeps the beat to the "Fight Song" during a home basketball game.

Team Work

Group Photo

Having fun at half-time, members of both the Varsity and Junior Varsity squads take time out for a quick picture.

CHARGE!!

Getting hyped up for the game, Nado football players listen to the fans as they get ready to play. "I always got pumped before a game by running out on the field and hearing the fans cheer me on," junior Brad Ferguson said.

Follow the Leader

Following coach Giesen onto the field after halftime, the Nado football team gets ready for the second half. "The football season was very disappointing," senior Richard Parker said.

Can't Touch This

Sprinting from the opponent, junior E.J. Stephenson intercepted the pass. "Even though this season wasn't that good, it still felt really great to score," Stephenson said.

Huddle Up

Getting together for a timeout, the football team gets ready. "We didn't play as well as we could have, it was a devastating year," senior Albert Bell said.

Pushin' em Back

Keeping their line, the football team defends the endzone. "Football was hard work, but I'm still doing it next year," freshman Kyle Schlottfelt said.

Getting Pointers

Instructing the team, coach Brown gives them a play for the next quarter. "The best part about football is definitely playing, but the bench warming was also fun," junior Preston Hills said.

Catching the Ball

Catching the ball, sophomore Jaryd McCullough gets the crowd pumped. "Playing quarterback was very exciting! I can't wait for next year," McCullough said.

This is the Way We Ball

Getting ready to snap the ball, the football team starts a play. "I was really happy with the last game against Columbus," senior Logan Moody said.

Luke shakes Indy

Taking Indy out, sophomore Luke Gysel dribbles the ball past number 27. "I love playing because we have good competition, that's what makes it fun," Gysel said.

Bow juggles the Ball

Juggling, captain, senior 1 Bowman shows off his talent. played really good this year becoming SEK champions awesome," Bowman said.

Having a Ball

Having a great game that freshman Cody Bell dribbles ball past the opposing team defense. "I hope we can do better and go to state next year," said.

Corner Kicking

Taking a corner kick, sophomore Trevor Hensley goes for the ball. "It felt pretty good winning S.E.K. and I wish I could have gone farther," Hensley said.

Taking him Out

Taking Columbus out, sophomore Cory Hensley plays soccer. "I thought we played really good this year and I'm proud we were S.E.K. champs this year," Hensley said.

Juking Indy

Juking out Independence, sophomore Chris Carr knocks a player on the ground. "We are doing pretty good as a very young team and we will be a lot better when we get older," Carr said.

Playing Hard

Playing with skill, junior Ric Brown plays with all his heart. "I'm glad we won S.E.K. and I hope next year we will be state champions," Brown said.

Took Indy Out

Playing with talent, senior Ivan Mortero helps the soccer team become S.E.K. champs. "I'm going to miss my friends on the team and soccer next year," Mortero said.

Got Icing?

Eating the rest of the icing, junior "Alison Chapman licks her lips. Always make sure you have napkins," Chapman said.

"I Can Fit"

Taking a seat, freshman Rebecca Lo relaxes after a hard day of playing the courts. "It was a great year, I loved to use the toilet seat covers at each game," Lo said.

Say Cheez Whiz

Waiting in line, junior Chelsey Kriebel, Allison Chapman, senior Stacy Baldwin, juniors Mindy White, and Callie Hurlbutt say cheese. "I like being crazy during practice," Baldwin said.

Team Love

Gathering for their last group picture, the Nado tennis team smiles for the camera.

Racket Power

Playing their rackets, sophomores Kim Haymaker, Stephanie Bozman, and Crystal Blackburn play in and out of the courts. "It gave me a lot to do in my spare time," Bozman said.

Keepin Loose

Stretching, senior Leonard Bundy and junior Mark Bell keep their muscles loose before practice. "I always like to stretch for at least 20 minutes before each practice," Bundy said.

Staying Focused

Staying focused, junior Mark Bell keeps his eyes on the ground to concentrate. "The most important thing about running is definitely concentration," Bell said.

Showing teamwork and dedication, senior Leonard Bundy and junior Mark Bell run together. "Even though the team lacked numbers this year that didn't affect our hopes of doing well this year," Bundy said.

Keeping Cool

Running with his shades on, senior Leonard Bundy tries to keep his eyes out of the sun and on the race. "It was tough running every day after school with the temperature the way it was," Bundy said.

In Flight

Conditioning, senior Leonard Bundy and junior Mark Bell, run stairs to improve their uphill running skills. "I don't really like stairs, but it helps me out so I do it," Bell said.

Contemplating

Thinking hard, senior Leonard Bundy focuses on the race. "I usually visualize my race before I run," Bundy said.

An Early Start

Getting up at 6:00 a.m., junior Mark Bell shows his dedication to Cross Country. "I don't really enjoy getting up at 6 o'clock but I do what I have to do to keep in shape," Bell said.

Ready, Set, Go!

Waiting with anticipation, senior Leonard Bundy gets ready to run. "I always get down before I run," Bundy said.

Striving To Keep Up

Practicing hard, junior Mark Bell tries to keep up with senior Leonard Bundy. "Leonard is a great runner but keeping up with him is hard," Bell said.

I Got It!

Reaching for the ball, juniors Milissa Schmidt, Taylor Gullick and sophomore Sarah Brown show off their rebounding skills.

Stop Right There!

Posting up, junior Darci Eveleigh stops a Parsons player right in his tracks. "We really had a blast playing JV and it always helps end with a winning record," Eveleigh said.

D-Fence!

D-ing up, senior Lance Morris plays great defense against the offense during the last basketball game. "Defense is what wins games," Morris said.

Who's open!

Looking for the open man, senior Lance Morris tries to force the ball inside the paint for two points.

Here I come

Guarding the ball, junior Brett Wesley plays against the point guard for the Independence Bulldogs.

What!

Looking frustrated, Coach Wall questions a close call made by the referees during the Varsity game. "Sometimes you just have to deal with what you get," Wall said.

What's the game plan!

Huddling up, the Varsity team decides on the next game plan to try to win the game against the opposing team.

Stroke

Taking a breath, junior John DeVore pushes hard to beat the competition. "I wasn't pleased at how I did personally, but hope next year is better," DeVore said.

Practice, Practice, Practice

Kicking hard at practice, freshman Jason Helkenberg moves along in the water. "I really enjoy swimming for the team this year," Helkenberg said.

Focus

Concentrating hard before the race, junior John DeVore looks ahead to await the start of the race. DeVore swam the 200 I.M. and the 500yd Freestyle.

Stretching it Out

Working hard on his backstroke, junior Ric Brown strives hard to overcome the competition. "I know I could have made it to state this year with better coaching," Brown said.

Put on a Happy Face

Goofing off while shaving, junior John DeVore sprays shaving cream on his stomach. "I really enjoyed shaving," DeVore said.

No Pain, No Gain

Holding his foot, junior Ric Brown shows that there are injuries in swimming as well. While swimming the 200 I.M. Relay, Brown hit his heel on the gutter.

Shave Time

Cheesing for the camera after shaving his head, freshman Jason Helkenberg tries to hide his naked head. "I don't have any regrets for shaving my head," Helkenberg said.

Go!

Showing their support, juniors Trent Kimmel and Arjun Reddy push their teammate. "Swim season wasn't too bad this year," Reddy said.

SMILE!

Resting up before their next match, members of the wrestling team kick back and relax. "I wish I could have wrestled my junior year. I think I would have done a lot better," senior Paul Tracy said.

Come on down!

Pushing herself down the runway sophomore Lindsay Morse tries to make it to state. "I really wish could have made state long jump but there is always next year, Morse said.

Record breaking

Flinging herself over, junior Andrea White breaks her own school record in the pole vault at Arkansas City.

Watch out!

Taking off strong, senior Logan Moody shows the other hurdlers how it's done. Moody placed first in the 110m and 300m hurdles at regionals.

Chill out

Relaxing, sophomores Cory Hensley, Trevor Hensley and senior Ivan Mortero catch up on some sleep before their race at Fredonia.

Jump away

Soaring through the air, sophomore Ronald Davis shows off his good long jump technique at the meet in Arkansas City.

Look at me

Flying through the air, senior Bobby Tracy shows the other vaulters how it's done. "Vaulting has been a really good experience for me and I'm hoping to win a medal at state," Tracy said.

Preparation

Thinking about his shot, freshman Zach Caresio gets ready to launch the ball. "This year has been so much fun. I am glad we have a golf program," Caresio said.

It's outta here!

Watching his ball, sophomore Brad Yeubanks hopes he makes a hole in-one. "We all have been doing so terrific this year, I hope we can make it to state," Yeubanks said.

Stats

Indy	3rd

Golf

Just chillin'

Teeing off

Practicing for a big game, sophomore Logan Bustos gets ready to swing his club. "This year was a building year, next season we will be a lot better," Bustos said.

Hard work

Trying to give it his all, sophomore Jaryd McCullough makes golf look difficult. "Our coach is great. He always makes trips a lot of fun," McCullough said.

Showing 'em how to do it

Teaching the golf team how to chip, head coach, Tom Tatman really knows what he is doing.

Concentration

Placing the ball just right, junior John DeVore practices his game. "Golf takes a lot of time practicing, but in the end it is worth it," DeVore said.

Fore!!!

Swinging the club, junior Justin Watts drives it down the fairway.

Great form

Putting his back into it, senior Matthew Bowman hits a long drive. "Since I was the only senior on the team, I felt like I had supreme authority over the other golfers," Bowman said.

MMM...ice cold water!!!

Filling water bottles, senior Kelly Shue and sophomore Caymen Nolin help to keep the football team from getting dehydrated. "It was a lot of fun managing football because I got to learn how to run a camera and I got to get out of school a lot to watch guy's butts," Nolin said.

This is how you do it!

Showing the helpers how to keep time, freshman Ashley Skukalek manages the girl's swimming team and keeps them happy and ready to go.

Trainers and Managers

Go!Go!Go!

Keeping time at a girl's swim mee sophomore Jeremy Thompson shows off the nice stopwatch he gets to use. "Ric and I got a little wet while we cheered NADO to the win," Thompson said.

Girl's Basketball

Keeping the stats, junior Jennifer Roberts watches the game while senior Kelly Shue writes down the stats. "It was fun managing girl's basketball because I got to be at all the games and be with the girls like part of the team," Roberts said.

Gotcha!!!

Goofing around, junior Kyle Thurman jokes around with some of the girls on the tennis team.

That feels sooo good

Soothing a sore ankle, head trainer Brent Henderson runs the whirlpool over an athlete's sore ankle.

Hmm...

Watching the game, sophomore Jesse Riley keeps track of the football players with sophomore Chance Tosh.

State Wrestling

Confering on the wrestling matches, coaches Travis Stalford and Troy McChristian watch their state qualifying wrestlers compete. "The wrestlers worked really hard to get to state and used their all in competition," Stalford said.

FKHS students are

Simply Irresistible

There are many faces at FKHS. There are pretty ones, fat ones, ugly ones, skinny ones, stupid ones, smart ones, cool ones, weird ones, dark ones, light ones, bumpy ones, dirty ones, clean ones, smooth ones, hairy ones, however, they are all "Simply Irresistible." Especially mine.

"How can it be permissible, she compromise my principle, that kind of love is mythical, she's anything but typical....Simply irresistible....Her loving is so powerful, It's simply unavoidable, the trend is irreversible the woman is invincible."

-Simply Irresistible

Robert Palmer

The Penguin

Holding a cardboard penguin at the Snowball dance, senior Starla Shufeldt models the penguin for the camera.

Showing it Off

Showing off their sexy prom dresses, seniors Teresa Lo, Rebecca Bumgarner, and Bobbi Herring dance all night long.

Shazam

Giving out tardies and temporary name badges, Gayle Lanning at FKHS helps out Mr. Speer and Mr. Owen.

True Freshmen

Acting like the freshmen they are, freshmen Tim Dougan, Jessica Fesler, Deidra Andrews and Jeremy Teehee carry David Skyles through the halls.

Faculty & Staff

The faculty has used their best resources to teach FKHS students the skills and knowledge needed to succeed in the real world. From Video Production to Chemistry, Adult Living to Computer Applications, the teachers are molding students into fine adults. The impressions you have left on our lives will linger on in our memories forever.

The Patrolers

Patrolling the halls, Ms. Hartzell, and Mr. and Mrs. Law check everyone's nametags and trackers.

C lass of 2006

The freshmen have arrived at FKHS with fear, anticipation, and enthusiasm. They have survived their first year and are now prepared for their next. Though they still have a while before they are considered upperclassmen, the initial anxiety of being a high schooler has passed. Congratulations freshmen, you're ready to hang with the big boys.

Hanging Out

C lass of 2004

The juniors have finally made it to the top of the food chain. These last three years for the juniors have been some very memorable years, and in some cases we shouldn't recall some of those memories. The fourth year for the class of 2004 will have some happy and sad memories.

Hangin' Low

Chillin' at their lockers, a tight group of juniors are hanging loose between classes.

You can be great if you only will.

You were well equipped for what fight you choose;

You have legs, arms and a brain to use,

*And the man(woman) who has risen great deeds to do
Began his (her) life with no more than you.*

You are the handicap you must face.

You are the one(s) who must choose your place(s)

You must say where you want to go;

How much you will study the truth to know.

God has equipped you for life, but He

Lets you decide what you want to be.....

Alicia Ann Neal

It's 2003
You've graduated at last.
We never thought we'd see you pass.

Love,
Mom & Kasey

To Our daughter, Jennifer Ann White

We have watched you grow and mature from a precious little girl to a beautiful young woman. We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. God has blessed you with so much; just imagine what He has planned for you!
Never forget: Commit everything you do to the Lord. Trust Him to help you do it, and He will. (Ps. 37:5) Congratulations.
We Love you, Mom & Dad

Jenny White

Patrick Robinson

Patrick,

You were always one of the "little kids." Now look at how much you have grown. I am so proud of you and the man you have become. My best advice to you is in John 3:1-21, believe.

Your big sister,
Megan

Amanda,

Congratulations
We are so proud of you!

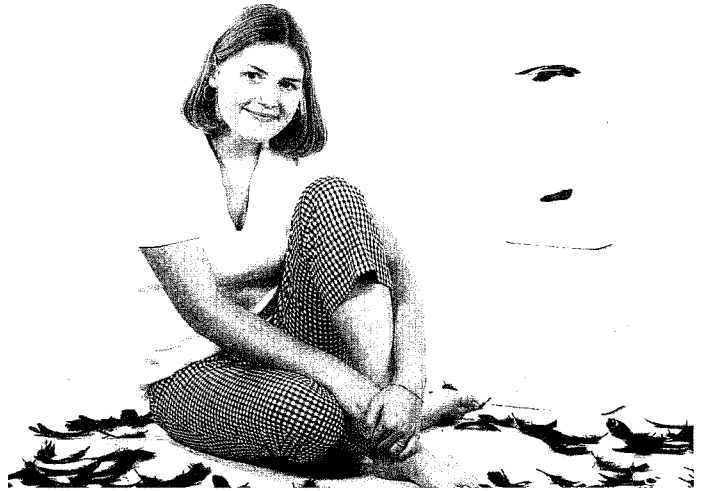

Love,
Mom&Dad

Michelle Harrell

Mikey,
We've been so proud of you over the years. We know that you will go on and achieve great success. You will always be a star to us, and we can't wait to one day see you on TV!
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Mandy

you didn't cry tears of sorrow or happiness, consider your years wasted."*

between two people"*

-Victor Borge

Tree,
You've always been the
"weird" one, but we knew that you'd do something creative with your uniqueness. And you proved us right. Keep on pursuing your dreams as a writer. We know you'll make us proud.
Mom, Dad, Alice, Rebecca

Sing your heart out

Showing her talent, senior Kara Thiele performs a song entitled, "Graduation Song" that she wrote, played, and sang herself.

Oh yeah!

Celebrating, members of the senior class show exactly how glad they are to finally be graduating.

Zjeah!

Strutting his stuff, senior Richard Parker does his own thing after receiving his diploma.

One Last Song

Breakin' it down, seniors Michelle Harrell, Teresa Lo, and Josh Shald perform their graduation medley. "It really made me proud when the senior class stood up and sang along," Lo said.

Congratulations

Shaking the hand of his fellow classmate, senior Sam Wilson walks away with his diploma.

Here we go!

Taking their final walk down the FKHS hallway, seniors prepare to enter the gym and receive their diplomas.

Oh my gosh!

Thinking hard, seniors Nikki Adamson, R.D. Alexander, Addie Allen, and Jackson Andrews, line up and prepare to graduate.

GRACE FELLOWSHIP

"Where YOU are Important"

A place where people meet, get to know each other, give and receive advice, and share their experiences. A family with the flawless guidance of a loving Father and a faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. A family of, and for, people like YOU!!

If it's been a while since you've visited a church,
why not give it another shot?

Carmen Azuara

Carmen,

It has been amazing watching you grow from a precious little ballerina to a lovely young lady. You have a beautiful spirit and we thank God for having you in our lives. We are proud of you and know that you will continue to accomplish many things in the road ahead.

Congratulations and We love you

Love,

Mom, Alma, Gloria, Darlene, and Rachel

Face the Music

Details:

The 66th volume of Field Kindley High School's Twister yearbook was printed by Jostens Publishing and Printing Divisions in Topeka, KS. The Face the music theme was chosen by the Twister staff. The litho cover was designed by staff along with Jostens representatives. Body caption and headlines varied with each section, while all captions were eight point Palatino with caption titles in ten point Palatino. The 2002-2003 Twister was designed in the FKHS journalism room using Pagemaker 7.0. Photographs were taken by staff photographers and developed in the school darkroom. Team photos were taken by Doyal's Studio, Elite Photography, and Eric Wilson. Mug shots were provided by Lifetouch. Each Twister yearbook was sold for $35. The cost of the book was paid for by book sales and advertising.
