The "King's New Coat of Arms"

Directions: In the box below, create and draw your own coat of arms that best represents Hawaii at the time of Kamehameha III. Your coat of arms should include details from what we have been studying in Social Studies up until this point in the school year. Your drawing should be original, colored, and fills up the box below. Use the textbook, notes, returned work, additional research, etc. if more information is required.

Magestic Motto Meaning

Directions: One of the results of the Paulet Episode was King Kamehameha III stating “Ua Mau ke Ea o ka ‘Āina i ka Pono” during a ceremony at Kawaiha‘o Church. This statement meaning “The Life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness” later became Hawaii’s state motto.

- What does this statement mean to you?
- How did the statement represent Hawaii at the time of Kamehameha III?
- How does it represent Hawaii today?
