

Eugene Maroul

Eugene is a 1958 graduate of West Columbia High School. Eugene led the 1956 West Columbia High School football team to a 10-0 record and a district championship. The 1957 Roughnecks under his direction advanced to the state semi-final game. After the 1958 season, Eugene was named to the all-state team as a quarterback. He was also a member of the 1958 regional championship Roughneck baseball team and the 1958 district championship basketball team. Eugene received baseball scholarships from Wharton Junior College and Sam Houston State University. Eugene served in the Army for two years and graduated from Sam Houston State in 1968.