

International Travel Powerpoint or Prezi Individual Project (50 points possible)

Projects and Presentations due: Wednesday, May 14, 2014 (Email your project to: lew_julia@ausd.us)

Directions: Research a foreign city, region, and/or country that you would like to visit. You must make a choice. Use two reliable, respectable, online sources. No Wikipedia! Consider using an official tourism website. Create a Powerpoint or Prezi that includes the following:

_____ Slide One: Cover slide (10 points) Create an original title. Example: Dreaming of Paris

Include the course title, due date, and your first and last names. Include a map with the name of the city, region, and/or country you want to visit. Include the capitol on the map.

_____ Slide Two: Reasons Slide (20 points) Create an original title. Example: Reasons for Travelling to France

Write concise sentences to respond to the following:

- Briefly explain why you want to travel to the place you chose as your topic.
- Identify and describe at least three sites or attractions you would like to visit. Explain your choices. Keep your responses PG-rated and appropriate for school.
- Explain approximately how much a round-trip airline ticket costs to the location. Cite your source.
- Include at least one photo of a site. (Credit, or cite, the source.)

_____ Slide Three: Key Facts (20 points) You may create an original title. Example: Fascinating Facts about France

Write concise sentences to address the following:

Major language(s) spoken in the place you want to visit

Form of government

Climate

Major religion(s)

Major industries (at least two)

At least two interesting facts about the place

Include at least one photo related to an item listed above. (Cite the source.)

Write complete sentences for slides two and three. Use proper grammar, word choice, spelling, and punctuation.

_____ Works Cited Page (10 points) Include two sources. No Wikipedia! Use MLA format. Refer to the Purdue OWL for examples: owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource

International Travel Powerpoint or Prezi Individual Project (50 points possible)

Projects and Presentations due: Wednesday, May 14, 2014 (Email your project to: lew_julia@ausd.us)

Directions: Research a foreign city, region, and/or country that you would like to visit. You must make a choice. Use two reliable, respectable, online sources. No Wikipedia! Consider using an official tourism website. Create a Powerpoint or Prezi that includes the following:

_____ Slide One: Cover slide (10 points) Create an original title. Example: Dreaming of Paris

Include the course title, due date, and your first and last names. Include a map with the name of the city, region, and/or country you want to visit. Include the capitol on the map.

_____ Slide Two: Reasons Slide (20 points) Create an original title. Example: Reasons for Travelling to France

Write concise sentences to respond to the following:

- Briefly explain why you want to travel to the place you chose as your topic.
- Identify and describe at least three sites or attractions you would like to visit. Explain your choices. Keep your responses PG-rated and appropriate for school.
- Explain approximately how much a round-trip airline ticket costs to the location. Cite your source.
- Include at least one photo of a site. (Credit, or cite, the source.)

_____ Slide Three: Key Facts (20 points) You may create an original title. Example: Fascinating Facts about France

Write concise sentences to address the following:

Major language(s) spoken in the place you want to visit

Form of government

Climate

Major religion(s)

Major industries (at least two)

At least two interesting facts about the place

Include at least one photo related to an item listed above. (Cite the source.)

Write complete sentences for slides two and three. Use proper grammar, word choice, spelling, and punctuation.

_____ Works Cited Page (10 points) Include two sources. No Wikipedia! Use MLA format. Refer to the Purdue OWL for examples: owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource