

Community Resource Persons

The Board wishes the professional staff to be concerned with locating people in various areas of interest and expertise who might serve as resource persons in particular units of study. All requests to use such resource persons should be cleared through the principal.

Staff members utilizing the services of resource persons shall insure that these people are properly thanked for this contribution, either by means of student letter or a note from the teacher.

Adopted: Date of Manual Recodification