

TUSKEGEE AIRMEN

The Tuskegee Airmen was the first _____ - _____ flying unit in the U.S. military. Before 1940, African Americans were _____ from flying for the U.S. military. African Americans could only serve as _____, _____ and other _____ occupations.

In response to pressure from the _____ for the _____ of _____ (NAACP), the black press, and others, the War Department in January 1941 formed the all-_____ 99th Pursuit Squadron of the U.S. Army Air Forces, to be trained using single-engine planes at the segregated _____ Army Air Field at _____, Alabama. The Tuskegee Airmen fought in the European theatre and was noted as the Army Air Forces' only escort group that did not lose a bomber to enemy planes. Altogether _____ pilots graduated from the Tuskegee airfield courses; they flew _____ missions and _____ sorties, destroyed _____ enemy aircraft, and won over _____ medals.

The Tuskegee Airmen overcame _____ and prejudice to become one of the most highly respected _____ groups of World War II.

Who do you think those men are?

summary sentence of notes

Picture of Tuskegee Airmen

FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES COMMISSION

_____ at war meant job vacancies in factories. _____ Americans moved from the _____ all over America to fill these jobs. _____ Americans protested over the _____ of African Americans

A. _____ threatened to lead _____ protestors to protest the _____ in defense jobs. _____ didn't want the protest in _____ DC so they compromised _____ established the _____ to promote _____ hiring. Therefore, during WWII, _____ more _____ and _____.

What are the Posters about?

Summary about A. Philip Randolph.

Picture of FEPC

Awkward Predicament . . . For YOU to Solve

What is this cartoon trying to convey?

What did this poster call Americans to do during WWII?