

PERSONAL NARRATIVE

STANDARD:

7.W.3 - Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences.

BENCHMARK:

7.W.3.b. - Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, and description, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.

BRAIN RESPONSE or SEVENTH GRADE RESPONSE

STANDARD:

7.2 - Use reading strategies to construct meaning from a variety of texts

BENCHMARK:

7.2.2 - Use annotation to identify questions and connections to prior knowledge while reading a variety of texts

PRE/POST TEST STORY ELEMENTS

STANDARD:

7.3 - Respond to literary texts from a range of stances: personal, interpretive, critical

BENCHMARK:

7.3.1 - Analyze plot, character, theme, dialogue, description, point of view, and other conventions of fiction

DRAMA REFLECTION

STANDARD: 7.6 - Apply knowledge of verbal and nonverbal language to communicate effectively in various situations: interpersonal, group, and public: for a variety of purposes

BENCHMARK:

7.6.5 Adjust volume, pacing, pitch, tone, and voice to the audience and situation