

"For me, only excellence will do."

Name: _____

College: _____

A Wrinkle in Time—Chapter 6 (The Happy Medium) Stop-n-Jot

1. Imagery. Draw a picture of the Happy Medium.

2. Recall Information. What happened to Mrs. Whatsit?
3. Idioms. What does the phrase, "The walls have ears" mean?
4. What is Calvin's home life like?
5. Compare and Contrast. Compare Meg's home life to Calvin's home life.

| Meg's Home Life | Calvin's Home Life |
|-----------------|--------------------|
| | |

6. How does seeing her mother help Meg?

"For me, only excellence will do."

Name: _____

College: _____

7. "The coldness deepened and swirled all about her and through her, and was filled with a new and strange kind of darkness that was a completely tangible thing, a thing that wanted to eat and digest her like some enormous malignant beast of prey."

What type of comparison is this? (circle one) metaphor simile
What two things are being compared? _____ and _____

8. What does the word malignant mean in the above quote? _____

9. What gift is each person given before they travel to Camazotz?

Meg- _____

Charles- _____

Calvin- _____

10. What is strange about Camzotz?

11. Idioms. Meg tells Charles to "get down off your high horse." What do you think this means?

12. What worries Charles about meeting his father?