

Watch DOGS (Dads of Great Students)

Watch DOGS (Dads of Great Students) is a father involvement initiative of the National Center for Fathering. Bowie Junior High will begin this program late October or Early November. One of the initiatives this year at Bowie Junior High School will be our participation in the Watch DOGS program. Watch DOGS (Dads of Great Students) is a father involvement initiative of the National Center for Fathering. Who are Watch DOGS? Fathers, grandfathers, step-fathers, uncles, and other father figures who volunteer to serve at least one day a year in a variety of school activities as assigned by the principal. We will be having a conference call meeting with the national office on Tuesday and we'll be launching the program in late October or early November. Look for more information in the weeks to come.
