

QUESTIONS: think about and answer

1. What were some problems the new nation faced in 1789?
2. How did the role of the Cabinet develop during Washington's administrations?
3. What were the three parts of Hamilton's economic plan and how would it help the economy?
4. Describe the difference between loose and strict constructionists?
5. What was the basis for the development of political parties in the US?
6. What was Washington's Neutrality Proclamation?
7. What did Washington warn against in his Farewell Address? Why?
8. What happened to the relationship between France and the US during this time?
9. What was the Convention of 1800 and why is it important?
10. Explain the term nullification.
11. Describe the key differences between Hamiltonians and Jeffersonians.
12. ASK AND ANSWER YOUR OWN QUESTION

IDENTIFICATIONS: What or who is it and why is it important - THINK SIGNIFICANCE - connect to others

Role of Cabinet	Bill of Rights	Judiciary Act of 1789
funding at par	assumption	tariff, customs duties, excise tax
Bank of US	Whiskey Rebellion	French Revolution
Franco-American Alliance	Neutrality Proclamation	Citizen Genet
Battle of Fallen Timbers	Treaty of Greenville	impressment, seizing ships
Jays Treaty	Pinckney's Treaty	Washington's Farewell Address
Election of 1796	XYZ Affair	Convention of 1800
Alien Acts	Sedition Act	Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions
Hamiltonians/Federalists	Jeffersonian/Dem-Rep	nullification

IDEAS: Funding the national and state debts
Implied powers and the elastic clause to the Constitution (necessary and proper)
States Rights and Nullification
Bank of the United States and the Tariff
Connection of domestic economic policies and foreign affairs

Primary Sources: Read and be ready to discuss - posted with assignment sheets

Letters From an American Farmer by J. Hector St. John De Crevecoeur - Day 1
Washington's Proclamation of Neutrality - Day 3
Washington's Farewell Address - Day 4

Take Home Essay:

DIRECTIONS: You are to answer ONE of the following questions. Carefully choose the question that you are best prepared to answer. Cite relevant historical evidence in support of your generalizations and present your arguments clearly and logically. When you finish writing, check your work if time permits. Make certain to number your answer as the questions are numbered below. Score your essay. Write in Pen. 45 minutes. It is suggested that 5 minutes be used for planning.

1. Evaluate the relative importance of domestic and foreign affairs in shaping American politics in the 1790's.
(relative importance means to rank in importance)
2. Which was more important during the presidencies of Washington and Adams; establishing economic stability or maintaining peace and neutrality with foreign countries?

Essay is due Monday Oct. 7, 2013 at the beginning of the period. All essays must be written in blue or black ink.