

Student Council Code of Conduct

Student Council Members will:

- Follow all school and classroom rules while at school or any school sponsored activity.
- Represent RMS with dignity, courtesy, respect, and pride at all times.
- Conduct themselves as role models and leaders of the school at all times.
- Represent and encourage all students to participate in school clubs and activities.
- Fulfill the expectations of their role in student council with diligence.

As school role models, student council members will be immediately dismissed from student council for any of the following infractions:

- Failure to fulfill the expectations of their role in student council, including meeting attendance
- Disrespect toward staff or students
- Physical, sexual, virtual (online) harassment
- Academic dishonesty
- Fighting, physical intimidation, battery
- Bullying
- Possession or use of drugs, alcohol, or tobacco or any substance considered a substitute for any of the above
- Possession or use of weapons or any item considered a substitute
- Hazing
- Theft, vandalism, damage, or destruction of school, staff, or student property
- Verbal assault or threat

In addition, suspension for any reason will be grounds for immediate dismissal from RMS student council.

RMS Administration or the Student Council advisor can remove any student for disciplinary action at any point during the school year.

I understand and agree to the above terms. I understand that violations of the RMS Student Council Code of Conduct can result in an immediate dismissal from Student Council.
