

Grade 7
12 The North

Construct a proper twelve sentence paragraph describing how the North changed dramatically during the period of Industrialization. Include in your paragraph the changes to daily life, transportation, and communication. Be specific in how these changes were bound to create a further split, culturally, between the North and the South.

Use the following template below as an outline for the paragraph. Write your paragraph on the reverse side.

12 Sentence Paragraph Format

SENTENCE #1: General statement about the topic

5 points

Example: Mother Teresa lived the Gospel of Christ without counting the cost.

SENTENCE #2: State three points about the topic.

5 points

Example: She led an intense life of prayer [point #1], lived like the poor [point #2], and served the most destitute in Calcutta [point #3].

SENTENCES #3, #4, #5: Write three sentences about the first point.

5 points

Example: Mother Teresa often made the closing remark of her letters, "Let us pray." When people asked her "What is your secret?" meaning "Why are you so full of joy and love for the poor?" She would reply, "It is very simple: I pray." After receiving Holy Communion, Mother Teresa would say two prayers: one in thanksgiving for her strength in the religious life, and a second asking Jesus to teach her how to pray.

SENTENCES #6, #7, #8: Write three sentences about the second point.

5 points

Example: When Mother Teresa established her order, the Missionaries of Charity, she was determined the sister would live like the poor whom they served. They depended on Divine Providence for everything they needed whether for themselves or for their poor people. Mother claimed that the source of their joy was the freedom that came from living with total dependence on God.

SENTENCE #9, #10, #11: Write three sentences about the third point.

5 points

Example: Mother began her work by going to the slums of Calcutta and picking up the dying on the street. The first home she established was the Home for the Dying in Calcutta. Later she opened a home for children who had been abandoned on the streets of Calcutta.

SENTENCE #12: Clincher or concluding sentence.

5 points

Example: Mother Teresa's life testifies that one soul, allowing itself to be used by God, can make an incredible impact on the world.

