

11. stoically a person who remains calm, represses his/her feelings
12. porringers a small bowl, especially one intended to be used by a child
13. dilatory tending to delay; not prompt
14. lassitude lack of energy; feeling a weakness; weariness
15. ravenously very hungry
16. inundate overflow or flood
17. procured to get by care or effort; secure, obtain
18. qualms uneasiness; misgiving or doubt
19. evolutions any movement into a new formation, especially in marching
20. queue a number of persons arranged in a line waiting their turn

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 21. disconsolately | unhappy; without hope |
| 22. punctilious | very careful and exact |
| 23. embarkation | the act or process of getting on a ship |
| 24. inebriated | to make drunk; intoxicate |