Humanitarians

Humanitarians are people who reach out to others-offering friendship, compassion, and kindness in many ways. These students are the glue of our community. They understand and accept the responsibility for creating a school that cares not only about education but about each other. They help make our school a place that we can be proud of and a place where students feel safe and accepted for the first time.

Student of the Quarter

These students are consistent in all areas needed to be academically successful. They have learned to juggle the stresses of life along with the expectations life holds as well. They hold high grade points and are regular attendees whom the teachers can count on to be present for all aspects of learning. They are willing to help their peers as needed as they share their knowledge and skills that come from being in school daily.

Leader of the Quarter

Students who receive this award are here on time, on task and on a mission to achieve their goals. They stand out in the halls and the classrooms for their ability to speak up, do what's right and to set a good example for those around them through their words and their actions. These students often take on additional roles and responsibilities around our school that helps all of us in a variety of ways.

Golden Character

Students who receive this award are hard working, kind, generous and will often be seen doing random acts of kindness. Whether it is welcoming a new student, helping a teacher or a student, or turning in lost items, this student continues to practice high standards of behavior and work ethic on a daily basis. They are a pleasure to be around.

Most Improved Student of the Quarter

The students who are honored with this award are learning to take charge of their lives and their decisions. They have come to realize that work + effort = results. They have set higher standards for themselves in work, attendance and actions. They have learned to honor themselves and their potential.

Perseverance

This award is about facing challenges head on. Instead of giving up or making excuses, they dig in and fight through whatever life throws at them. They demonstrate strength and courage. They know when to reach out or pull from within and because of this, they learn that they can make it through the storms.

Great Start

This award is for students that are new to Grandview. These are students that came making a commitment for success. They are hard working, positive and a great addition to the Grandview family.
