

Ethyne (acetylene) is burned in air.

Propene is burned in air.

Dimethyl ether is burned in air.

Propanone is burned in air.

A sample of 1-propanol is burned in air.

Butanol is burned in air.

Ethene gas is burned in air.

Ethanol is burned in oxygen.

Propanol is burned completely in air.

Ethene (ethylene) gas is bubbled through a solution of bromine.

Ethanol and formic acid (methanoic acid) are mixed and warmed.

Methane gas is mixed with an excess of chlorine gas.

Ethanol is completely burned in air.