

The American Missionary Experience

Directions: Carefully follow the steps below.

1. After you finish reading the entire article, divide the article equally amongst the number of members in your group.
2. As a group decide who is going to be responsible for each divided section of the reading. Each person must do a different section.
3. Go back and reread your section.
4. Determine the important ideas of your section. Make sure you have at least TWO important ideas from your section.
5. Illustrate the selected important ideas from your section on the provided poster paper.
6. Include a caption on your poster of at least THREE complete detailed sentences
7. Posters must be colored, visible from afar and reflects high quality work. Your posters should represent time and effort.
8. Be prepared to individually present your poster to the class during the next class period.

Rubric

Poster	All of my poster's pictures and text are colorful, appropriate and relevant and easily viewed and identified from 6 ft. away.	Most of my poster's pictures and text are colorful, appropriate and relevant and can somewhat be viewed and identified from 6 ft. away.	Some of my poster's pictures and text are partially-colored, appropriate and relevant and cannot be viewed from 6 ft. away	Few to none of my poster's pictures are not colored, appropriate and relevant and cannot be seen from 6 ft. away.
---------------	---	---	--	---

Presentation Reflection Questions

Directions: Answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper. Answer the questions of _____ numbers below. Answers should be at least ____ sentences. Staple your responses to this sheet.

Group Members' Names: _____

1. What is at least 1 new thing you learned from the presentation that was not a part of your reading?
2. Does the presentation make the missionaries look good or bad? Explain.
3. Draw a fast sketch of a picture that comes to mind after hearing the presentation (don't just copy what was already draw and show to you).
4. One question I still have after listening to the presentation is... I'm not sure what the answer is but I think it might be...
5. If you were a Hawaiian, would you be happy or not happy with what the missionaries are doing in the presentation you just heard?
6. One positive comment I would like to make about the presentation is...