

Objective: SWBAT complete a Dialectical Journal about the beginnings of the Industrial Revolution.

“The enclosure movement had two important results. First, landowners tried new agricultural methods. Second, large landowners forced small farmers to become tenant farmers or to give up farming and move to the cities.”	   As a result of _____, the _____ increased.
“Industrialization, which is the process of developing machine production of goods...”	In other words _____ is the change to _____ _____.
“Water power and coal... iron ore... rivers... harbors...”	_____ are essential for _____ _____.
“Britain had an expanding economy to support industrialization.” “Britain’s political stability gave the country an tremendous advantage over its neighbors.”	In addition to _____, _____ and _____ which resulted in _____.
But Britain had all the factors of production, the resources needed to produce goods and services that the Industrial Revolution required. They included land, labor and capital (or wealth).	In other words, _____ can be described as _____ _____.

The _____ occurred as a result of _____ and _____.

First _____ was/were essential _____ because _____. Another cause is _____. This is important because _____.

Both _____