

Temporary Administrative Arrangements

The Assistant Superintendents will act as chief executive officer for the school district in the absence of the Superintendent.

In the absence of both the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent, the Superintendent will name an individual to be in charge and will notify Board officials and school personnel of the temporary arrangement.

Whenever a principal is absent during school hours, the principal will designate a certificated employee to be in charge of the school building.

Revised: August 9, 1983