

AGHS Eagle Update

Week of October 10, 2014

Congratulations to Shayna Levy and Ryan Teixeira for being selected as AGHS's September Elks Teenager of the Month. Both Shayna and Ryan are very deserving of this award.

Discover what Cuesta College has to offer you in the way of academic, technical degrees, and certificates by attending the Cuesta Senior Promise Day on October 17th. Meet admissions and financial aid representatives, visit with faculty members and Cuesta students as you explore the variety of options presented in more than 20 programs set up in booths in the middle of the SLO campus. Students from every high school in the county will be in the gym as you learn about Cuesta Scholarships available to local students, including The Promise of a Full Year Tuition Free for ALL first-time freshmen. To go, pick up a permission slip from Mrs. Tellez in the front office and return it to her by Monday, October 13th.

The 1st quarter ends on Friday, October 17th. Parent Teacher Conferences will be on October 22nd from 5:00-7:00 with report cards available in the MPR starting at 4:30. Report cards will not be mailed home. Have your child pick them up in the Records Office or print them from your Homelink account.

AGHS lanyards are in! Swing by Room 205 or the Blue Zoo Shed and pick one up for a mere $3.50.

AGHS is wearing PINK on Wednesdays. Wear pink to show your support for Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

FREE flu clinics for ages 2 to 49! For Students/Siblings/Parents/Staff – Vaccination against the Flu is the single best way to prevent influenza. Clinics have been established on Monday, October 20th at the Oceano Community Center from 3:30-5:30, and Wednesday, October 22nd at the AGHS MPR from 3:30-5:00. Children under 18 must be accompanied by an adult. No appointment is necessary.

AGHS is once again having their annual Pumpkin Patch and Haunted House at the high school. Please help support our FFA program by purchasing your pumpkin at our school farm located at the back of the school. Exact dates and times are located on our school web site at www.aghseagles.org
