

Popular Food...

Fish is very popular... including whale blubber, whale steaks, and seal meat. Fruits and vegetables are raised in greenhouses

5

Thorrablot

Thorrablot was a festival where the people offered food to the gods.

Currently, the Icelanders come together to eat, drink and be merry on the first Friday after January 19th. The menu includes traditional Icelandic food such as shark's meat, boiled sheep's head, and ram's stomach.

After dinner, traditional songs, games, storytelling, and dancing will continue until the early hours of the morning!

See me if you can!

Elf Town

A large number of Icelanders believe in elves. The elves live in their homes inside rocks, hillsides, and lava formations. The large settlement of elves is in the port town of Hafnarfjörður, near Reykjavik.

6

Iceland

“Land El og Is”
“The Land of Fire and Ice”

Published by Ms. Jennifer Campero

World Geography

3rd, 4th, & 6th Blocks

www.tsd.state.tx.us

Places to see...

The Perlan

Reykjavik

"The Pearl" is a famous building in the capital of Iceland. It has gardens, shops, restaurants, and a museum about Iceland

2

Hallgrímur Lútheran Church

Reykjavik

Imagine Peace Tower

Reykjavik

A memorial to John Lennon from his widow, Yoko Ono.

A tall "tower of light" with words, "Imagine Peace" in 23 languages..

Light goes into sky...using geo-thermal energy. Because of its beauty and environment, Iceland was chosen.

3

Dimmuborgir

Myvatn Lake

This large area is composed of different volcanic caves and lava formations. Those strange structures are one of Iceland's most popular natural tourist attractions.

The Icelanders believe that Dimmuborgir is the place where the Satan landed when he was banished from the heaven.

4

