

Ecological Relationship Match

Mutualism -	Commensalism -	Parasitism -	Competition -	Predation -

Relationship Match Cards

A. Two male lions fight over a female lion.	B. A pack of wolves and a bear fight over a dead deer.	C. A praying mantis insect eats a grasshopper.	D. Ox pecker birds picks parasites off the water buffalo for food and the water buffalo have no parasites.
E. A butterfly drinks nectar from a flower and the flower gets pollinated.	F. Spring Wood Tigers vs. Northbrook Raiders	G. A fungus grows under a tree's bark and causes it to grow slowly.	H. A tapeworm lives in the intestines of a person, causing illness and weight loss.
I. Barnacles attach to the skin of whales where they are able to capture food. The whale is not helped or harmed.	J. Fleas suck blood from a cat.	K. Lichens use trees as a place to grow and be protected. The tree is not affected.	L. Ants milk aphids for honeydew (food) and the aphids are protected from predators by the ants.
M. A blue jay bird pulls an earthworm out of the ground and eats it	N. You have harmless eyelash mites living in your eyelash follicles	O. A lion chases, catches, kills, then eats a zebra	