PUSD Classified Employee of the Year 2015

Pleasanton, California– Pleasanton Unified School District is pleased to announce the Classified Employee of the Year for 2015-16 is Linda Flagler, Administrative Secretary for the Curriculum Department.

Linda has been with Pleasanton Unified for twenty years, starting as a substitute in 1995. Linda has held the positions of Health Clerk at Walnut Grove, School Clerk at Harvest Park, Office Assistant in Human Resources, before becoming the Administrative Secretary in Curriculum for the past ten years.

According to her colleagues, Linda wears a variety of hats in her position. Not only does she work with a diverse group of people in her department, she is also involved with the greater Pleasanton community. Most importantly, Linda always maintains a positive attitude along with a great work ethic and incredible drive to improve PUSD.

“Linda is a consummate professional, always going out of her way to support everyone,” said Superintendent Parvin Ahmadi. “Linda is truly a gem and she plays a critical role in the success of our Educational Services Department which in turn impacts teaching and learning in our schools.”

Linda Flagler’s name has been submitted to the Alameda County Office of Education for the county’s Classified Employee of the Year program.

Linda, and her fellow nominees, will be honored at the Board meeting Tuesday, March 10, 2015.
