

District and Building Parent Involvement Plan

Goal for Student Learning and Behavior

When families are involved in education, there are significant benefits for students, educators, and families. Students demonstrate more positive attitudes toward school and learning, higher achievement and test scores, improved behavior, increased homework completion, greater participation in academic activities, improved school attendance, and fewer

Parenting

- School newsletter information
- District “Café” parent events
- Community resources brochure
- Social work services available for students and families most at-risk and in crisis.

Communicating

- Report Cards
- Progress Reports
- Teacher blogs
- Email & phone calls
- Campus Portal
- Building and district websites
- Parent teacher conferences
- Student support meetings
- Open House & information meetings

Participation

- Math & Science Nights
- Classroom volunteering
- PTC Events & Participation
- Grade level events: Muffins w/ Mom, Donuts w/ Dads, Biomes & Bagels, etc.
- Family Literacy Cafes

Shared Responsibility

- At home learning expectations: homework, independent reading, etc.
- Parent input for Student Support Team
- Parent agenda checks & signing
- Curriculum & program information nights/meetings

Decision Making

- School Improvement Team
- Title I Committee
- Annual surveys for perception input

Collaboration

- Police liaison
- Community resources for parents
- Faith-based cooperation, i.e. Kid’s Hope USA, Backpack Buddies, etc.
- Fire safety, awareness & education.
- Community speakers, i.e. city mayor, state representatives, etc.