

SAINT LOUIS SCHOOL

SLS Wireless Internet Safety

Saint Louis School has installed internet filtering software on SLS wireless in an attempt to block users from accessing inappropriate and/or harmful text or images on the internet. The software works by scanning website addresses, website content and other documents for objectionable words or concepts. When the software finds any such objectionable words or concepts, it denies the user access.