

Final: Bring Essay Scantron, your notes, and note card for final.

- Essay
 - What is myth? Please touch on the following points when writing your response:
 - 1. Universal truths vs. historical fact
 - 2. Why we study it
 - 3. Myth as entertainment in ancient/modern time
 - 4. Linking of human psyche/ways of explanation
 - May have a note card outlining essay
- Scantron, open note, 100 questions
 - 7 Insights
 - matching terms with definitions
 - Origin myth general notes
 - Theogony, anthropogony, cosmogony, titanomchy, order vs. chaos
 - Snorri general notes and Pros Edda plot, main characters
 - Native American myth plot
 - African myth plot
 - Greek myths, plot and characters
 - Pandora, Theogony plot/characters, story of Argus, plant/flower origin myths
 - Floods
 - General notes
 - Monsters
 - Match the GREEK monsters (only!) with their description
 - The Underworld
 - General notes
 - Hades, Great Below, Xilbalba, Duat, Hel,
 - Hero's journey
 - Match the Campbellian elements with the plot of The Odyssey.
 - Match Harry Potter plot with Rankian elements
 - Ramayana terms from notes
 - Myth in Media general notes
- Participation
 - Give yourself a participation grade out of 100
 - Explain in detail why you are giving yourself that grade
 - Answer the questions completely and honestly
- Turn in all notes used after you are finished. Note card for essay as well. ALL MATERIALS USED MUST BE TURNED OVER (this means if you a notebook, you give me the whole thing)

Any talking during Final will result in forfeit of ALL participation points. Bring something to work on/study for once you finish. Bonam Fortunam! (good luck...shhhhh, don't tell the gods!)