

The Industrial Revolution

Ap European Ch. 15 World History Ch. 9

Ap World Ch. 30

1. The Industrial Revolution is usually associated with the _____ revolution.
2. By 1848, most industry was still dependant on _____ power.
3. For thousands of years, people wore _____ downs, or _____ clothes.
4. By the end of the 18th C., people would be able to make their own _____ on their own _____ machine.
5. The _____ was the most important invention of this time. By 1848, there was only _____ miles of railroad track. By WWI, there would be more than _____ miles of track.
6. The greatest advances of the time were in the areas of _____ & _____.
7. Trains brought with them new comforts such as railway cars, _____ cars & _____ cars.
8. _____ was the most impressive area of innovation. Throughout history, different methods of delivering information, from _____ pigeon to _____ waves by the end of the 19th C. were a result of this revolution.
9. One new form of communication that became very powerful was the _____.
10. The power of the printed word was completely _____. It became known as the _____ Estate because of its influence with the masses.
11. The newspaper could _____ a bank, _____ a government, and even _____ a war.

12. The chief characteristic of this age was _____ and _____ change which was documented by the news industry.
13. In the Age of Industry, the greatest revolution took place in _____.
14. The Industrial Revolution along with the Agricultural Revolution helped end _____ in Europe by having the _____ and _____ ship move the _____ food of the day where it was needed quickly.
15. The _____ Revolution of the _____ C. led to the _____ Revolution of the 19th C.
16. The Agricultural Revolution brought a new _____ to all by the end of the 19th century. There were _____ peasants because there were more _____.
17. The most dramatic changes occurred not on the farms but rather in the _____.
18. By the year 1800, there were only _____ cities with 100,000+ people; by 1900, there were over _____ cities with a total of more than _____ inhabitants.
19. The _____ represented what was _____, _____ and _____ of the coming age.