

Future Career PowerPoint or Prezi Individual Project (50 points possible)

Projects and Presentations due: Wednesday, May 14, 2014 (Email your project to: lew_julia@ausd.us)

Directions: Research a job or career that you would like to pursue. Your choice must be PG-rated and appropriate for school. Use two reliable, respectable, online sources. No Wikipedia! Consider using an official website for a business or government. Create a Powerpoint or Prezi that includes the following:

_____ Slide One: Cover slide (10 points) Create an original title. Example: Reporting the News

Include the course title, due date, and your first and last names. Include a map with the name of the city, region, and/or country where you may work someday. Include the state capitol on the map.

_____ Slide Two: Reasons Slide (20 points) Create an original title. Example: Reasons for Working as a Reporter

Write concise sentences to respond to the following:

- Briefly explain why you are interested in the job, career, or field that you are researching.
- Identify and describe at least two jobs in the same industry or field that you're interested in. (Example: I may work as a news reporter and anchor. I may also work as a news producer writing stories.)
- Identify and describe two qualifications for the job or career. State the starting salary. Cite your source.
- Include at least one photo related to your topic. (Credit, or cite, the source.)

_____ Slide Three: Key Facts (20 points) You may create an original title. Example: Key Facts About Reporting

Write concise sentences to address the following:

At least two interesting facts about the job, career, or field

Comment on the difficulty of obtaining your dream job or career

Explain whether or not the job could be outsourced, or, shipped overseas.

Include at least one photo related to an item listed above. (Cite the source.)

Write complete sentences for slides two and three. Use proper grammar, word choice, spelling, and punctuation.

_____ Slide Four: Works Cited Page (10 points) Include two sources. No Wikipedia! Use MLA format. Refer to the Purdue OWL for examples: owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource

Future Career PowerPoint or Prezi Individual Project (50 points possible)

Projects and Presentations due: Wednesday, May 14, 2014 (Email your project to: lew_julia@ausd.us)

Directions: Research a job or career that you would like to pursue. Your choice must be PG-rated and appropriate for school. Use two reliable, respectable, online sources. No Wikipedia! Consider using an official website for a business or government. Create a Powerpoint or Prezi that includes the following:

_____ Slide One: Cover slide (10 points) Create an original title. Example: Reporting the News

Include the course title, due date, and your first and last names. Include a map with the name of the city, region, and/or country where you may work someday. Include the state capitol on the map.

_____ Slide Two: Reasons Slide (20 points) Create an original title. Example: Reasons for Working as a Reporter

Write concise sentences to respond to the following:

- Briefly explain why you are interested in the job, career, or field that you are researching.
- Identify and describe at least two jobs in the same industry or field that you're interested in. (Example: I may work as a news reporter and anchor. I may also work as a news producer writing stories.)
- Identify and describe two qualifications for the job or career. State the starting salary. Cite your source.
- Include at least one photo related to your topic. (Credit, or cite, the source.)

_____ Slide Three: Key Facts (20 points) You may create an original title. Example: Key Facts About Reporting

Write concise sentences to address the following:

At least two interesting facts about the job, career, or field

Comment on the difficulty of obtaining your dream job or career

Explain whether or not the job could be outsourced, or, shipped overseas.

Include at least one photo related to an item listed above. (Cite the source.)

Write complete sentences for slides two and three. Use proper grammar, word choice, spelling, and punctuation.

_____ Slide Four: Works Cited Page (10 points) Include two sources. No Wikipedia! Use MLA format. Refer to the Purdue OWL for examples: owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource