Chapters 1-5 Characterization

Okonkwo is consumed by anger and fear.

A. Find five incidents where he lets these emotions surface. (INDIRECT characterization)

B. Find five passages where the author, Achebe, tells us that this man is perpetually upset and uneasy. (DIRECT characterization)

A. Shows his anger and fear: what happens (include page number)

B. Tells of his lack of contentment (again, include page numbers). These should be quotations from the novel.
