

Opinion Statement Prompt

In a well-written essay of 4-5 paragraphs, answer the following prompt.

In Liam O’Flaherty’s “The Sniper”, how do you think O’Flaherty wants the reader to view the sniper – as a coldblooded killer, a soldier doing his duty, or a man caught in a tragic situation?

Rubric

A successful opinion statement should:

- ✓ clearly state the issue and your opinion on it in the introduction
- ✓ support your opinion with convincing examples, facts, and statistics
- ✓ use language and details appropriate for your audience
- ✓ sum up your opinion in the conclusion

Opinion Statement Prompt

In a well-written essay of 4-5 paragraphs, answer the following prompt.

In Liam O’Flaherty’s “The Sniper”, how do you think O’Flaherty wants the reader to view the sniper – as a coldblooded killer, a soldier doing his duty, or a man caught in a tragic situation?

Rubric

A successful opinion statement should:

- ✓ clearly state the issue and your opinion on it in the introduction
- ✓ support your opinion with convincing examples, facts, and statistics
- ✓ use language and details appropriate for your audience
- ✓ sum up your opinion in the conclusion