UNIT II (PART I) HOMEWORK THE PROTESTANT REFORMATION

Directions: Here in Unit II, Part I, we are looking at the history of Asia from 1450-1750. In this regard, you've read and taken notes on the following

- A. The Ming Dynsnasty
- B. The Qing (Manchu) Conquest
- C. The European Arrival in Asia
- D. Silk and Tea Production
- E. Daimyo, samurai, and Japanese Feudalism
- F. The Reunification of Japan
- G. The Tokugawa Shogunate
- H. Japanese Isolationism

To accompany this reading, I've lectured on some of the more note worthy events that took place in Europe during this period of 1450-1750.

In this regard, I've made spcial mention of one of the more important events - the Protestant Reformation.

In terms of the Protestant Reformation, read and then, in the space below, take notes on the article entitled Luther Sparks the Protestant Reformation
