Confidentiality Statement

“Confidence” refers to information protected by the agency-client under applicable law, and “secret” refers to other information gained in the professional relationship that the client has requested be held inviolate or the disclosure of which would be embarrassing or would be likely to be detrimental to the client.

I, _____, do hereby understand the importance of the Confidentiality Statement. I will uphold the confidentiality of my position. I understand that if I fail to do so, my position would be jeopardized, and if found guilty in a court of law, could be held liable for a fine.
