

Grade 7
7 Launching a New Nation
Study Guide

Use the terms to answer each following question as you review your knowledge of the unit's main points.

Define precedent and then provide several examples of how President Washington set precedents as the first president. Additionally, explain how the first Congress also set precedents.

Precedent
Inauguration
Cabinet
Judiciary Act of 1789

Explain Alexander Hamilton's vision for American finances and why Thomas Jefferson often disagreed with him.

National Debt
Bonds
Speculators
State Debts & Moving the Capitol
Tariffs
National Bank
Manufacturing & Business
Agriculture

Describe how the French Revolution caused a divide in Washington's Cabinet

Washington's Neutrality Proclamation
Alexander Hamilton's view of the French Revolution
Thomas Jefferson's view of the French Revolution

Describe how Britain continued to cause problems for the United States and how Jay's Treaty aimed to solve them.

US ships

Forts in the Northwest

Britain and the Native Americans in the Northwest

US debt

Jay's Treaty

Reaction to Jay's Treaty

Pinckney's Treaty

Describe how Washington handled domestic trouble.

Whiskey Rebellion

Alexander Hamilton

Taxation

George Washington

Explain the warnings President Washington gave in his Farewell Address. Why did he give them?

National Debt

Political division in the United States

Permanent Alliances with foreign nations

How did President John Adams solve the ongoing problems with France? How did the two political parties respond?

Federalists

Democratic-Republicans (usually referred to as Republicans)

Alien & Sedition Acts

Kentucky & Virginia Resolutions